

August 8, 2022

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter certifies that Angelina Isabel Valenzuela Rendón successfully completed a peer-review report for an article under publication consideration by Common Ground Research Networks. We express gratitude for Angelina Isabel Valenzuela Rendón's contribution to the peer-review process. Angelina Isabel Valenzuela Rendón's expertise as a reviewer has enriched the value of Revista Internacional de Ciencias Sociales Interdisciplinarias.

This peer-review report was verified on 8/8/2022. We have certified that Angelina Isabel Valenzuela Rendón's report is complete and that it satisfies the requirements of our evaluation rubric. Our approach to peer review seeks to be inclusive, founded on the most rigorous and merit-based two-way anonymous peer-review processes. Common Ground Research Networks takes intellectual integrity seriously. The publisher, editors, reviewers, and authors all agree upon a standard of expected ethical behavior, which is based on the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) Core Practices. Our policy can be viewed here: <https://cgnetworks.org/journals/publication-ethics>.

Yours Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'P. Kalantzis-Cope'.

Dr. Phillip Kalantzis-Cope
Chief Social Scientist
Common Ground Research Networks